Join OAH, in conjunction with Georgia State University Department of History and the Georgia Association of Historians at the second OAH Regional Conference. The aim of the conference is to serve anew OAH members at community and four-year colleges and high schools, and those employed in government, museums, and the private sector as well as in major universities. The conference also seeks to encourage persons who will soon serve in these diverse capacities—graduate students—to get involved in professional activities early in their careers.

The OAH Regional Conference provides exhibitors with a variety of opportunities to showcase your company or organization, introduce new publications or services, and strengthen existing relationships. Other benefits include:

- One complimentary registration per display
- Sponsorship and advertising opportunities
- Listing in the Regional Conference Program
- Listing on the OAH web site and link to your company's site

Mail your complete application and payment to the OAH office no later than January 1, 2004 to be sure your organization is included in the Southern Regional Conference exhibit room.

Booth information

Display Specifications

Exhibit displays are on 6' skirted tables with a chair. The cost for each exhibit display table is $300. OAH will provide a 7" X 44" identification sign.

Assignment of Space

Applications with a complete original contract and either payment or proof that payment has been requested will be processed as they are received. No booth numbers will be assigned.

Reservations

1) Fill out the contract completely and return the contract to Amy Stark, Convention Manager, OAH, 112 N. Bryan Ave., PO Box 5457, Bloomington, Indiana 47408.

2) Applications must be post-marked no later than January 1, 2004 to be included in Program materials.

3) Include payment of $150 per display reserved or proof that payment has been requested from your institution. Orders received without either will be held and processed when payment is received.

Balance Due

Balance is due May 1, 2004. Notification of cancellation must be made in writing. Cancellations received after January 1, 2004 obligate the exhibitor to full payment of the rental and forfeiture of all monies paid.

Additional Opportunities

Sponsorship

There are many sponsorship opportunities available at the 2004 OAH Regional Conference. They include morning coffee breaks in the registration/exhibit room; boxed luncheons; and receptions at the Atlanta History Center, Georgia State Capitol Education Center, and Ebenezer Baptist Church. Graduate student and precollegiate teacher hospitality rooms also are planned. For more information, contact the Ginger Foutz, Sponsorship Coordinator, by email, <sponsors@oah.org> or phone, 812-855-9851.

Attendee Mailing List

Interested in reaching OAH Regional Conference participants before the meeting? The conference preregistration mailing list is an excellent way to inform attendees about registration area events, receptions and other activities your organization will sponsor during the meeting. Email and postal mail lists are available. The conference preregistrant list will be available after June 17, 2004. For more information, contact the Meeting Department by email at <meetings@oah.org> or phone at 812-855-9853.
